

Hello from New York

Inviato da SPEIRMOOR - 20/08/2014 15:30

Please forgive my English as I have very little Italian. I was directed here as I'm looking for help with my key which is missing the nameplate and was told I may find one here?

Here is a picture of my Griso

Hello! Are you sure you are safe riding a Griso in NY? Quite brave indeed, car drivers are the worst I've ever seen!
